

Author of the Term

- Anthony Brown - author of The Tunnel.
- Our class novel this half term is The BFG by Roald Dahl.

Geography

- Where we live in the UK - identify different types of settlements and their human and physical features; how to use OS maps; locating the counties and cities of the UK.

Science

- Light - To be able to identify different light sources, understand how to stay safe in the sun and to explore reflection.

Maths

- Addition and Subtraction - add and subtract 100s, 10s and 1s, adding 2- and 3-digit numbers, estimating and inverse operations.
- Multiplication and Division - sharing and grouping using arrays, identifying multiples of 2, 5 and 10. Multiplying and dividing by 3 and 4.

TH	H	T	O
3	4	7	6
1	3	4	2
2	1	3	4

Year 3

Autumn Term 2

DT

- To research how the purpose of a dream catcher and experiment with joining a range of materials together to build own dream catcher.

French

- I'm Learning French - To understand why we are learning French and to use a range of basic vocabulary.

English

Fantasy Stories - To write a fantasy story using all of the key features for a narrative. Our stimulus text will be the BFG by Roald Dahl and The Dream Giver.

Letters for different purposes - To write a letter for a specific purpose, using an appropriate layout for a letter and including all the key features.

RE

Our big question - What is the trinity?

To identify different sources of authority within religion and how they link with beliefs.

PE

PE days:

Monday - all classes; Wednesday - 3W;
Thursday - 3B and 3BR; Friday - 3R

Basketball, Gymnastics, Football