

Online Safety – Support and Guidance

We have compiled a directory of useful websites that can offer support and guidance around your family's online safety. The websites cover a range of topics including:

- Tips for keeping your family safe online
- Age-appropriate guidance
- Parent guides for gaming and social media
- How to manage screentime
- Ai
- Mobile phones
- How to respond and report concerns
- Cyberbullying
- Digital wellbeing
- Parent control and privacy guides

eSafetyTraining by 'The 2 Johns'

www.esafetytraining.org/resources/parents-carers-area

A very good website which is updated regularly covering a wide range of online safety topics. There is also a facility to sign up for regular updates.

Online safety leaflets and resources by Internet Matters

www.internetmatters.org/resources/esafety-leaflets-resources/

Internet matters provide an extensive selection of useful leaflets for both parents and children including guidance on how to engage with your children about online safety.

Keeping children safe online by NSPCC

www.nspcc.org.uk/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/

NSPCC are a leading charity in ensuring children's safety. They have a wide catalogue of information and advice that will help educate parents and support them in keeping their children safe online.

Parent Guides by The National College

www.nationalcollege.com/library

Use the search tool and filter 'parent guides' for handy information about devices, games and social media – these usually include the concept of the technology, risks and approaches to keep safe.

Ratings and Reviews by Common Sense Media

www.common sense media.org

The website provides parents with rating and reviews of all forms of media films, gaming, TV shows but it also provides reviews and guidance for social media and online gaming.